IMPLEMENTATION PLAN
APPROVED BY THE TWO JOINT POLITICAL AND SECURITY MECHANISM (JPSM) CO-CHAIRS ON 19 DECEMBER 2012
UPDATED WITH JBVMM DEPLOYMENT DETAILS AGREED ON 8 MARCH 2013 IN ADDIS ABABA

UNISFA ROLL-OUT PLAN

1. JBVMM Incremental Roll-Out Proposal in Two Phases:

1.1 First phase: Build-up of Initial Operational Capability (IOC), with JBVMM HQ, 2 Sectors HQs and 4 teams.

1.2 Second phase: Build-up of Full Operational Capability (FOC).

2. Operationalization of Phase 1:

2.2 Temporary JBVMM HQ will relocate to Kadugli from Assosa, Ethiopia.

2.3 One Sector HQ will deploy in Kadugli with two teams responsible for the Sectors 2& 1.

2.4 One sector HQ will deploy in Gok Machar with two teams responsible for the Sectors 3& 4.

3. Operationalization of Phase 2:

3.1 All Sectors and teams will be operationalized with full strength in their respective sites.

3.2 Four sector HQs and 10 Teams will be operational (the other sector HQs will be at Buram and Malakal during FOC).

4. Deployment and Employment of Teams and Team Sites:

4.1 The number of team sites and teams in a Sector will change based on current and future joint security assessments. JBVMM HQ can establish team sites within the SDBZ with notification to the JPSM and any establishment of new team sites outside the SDBZ will be with the consent of the two JPSM Co-Chairs. The total number of monitors authorized will be 90, as per JPSM decisions of 18 September 2011 and UNSC resolution 2024, with an initial strength of 70, which will be built up as per progress of operationalization.

5. Force Protection Strength

5.1 The Force Protection is agreed at 860 personnel and 266 military support personnel.

6. Timeline

6.1 IOC: South Sudan has agreed to provide land within 16 days (from 10 March 2013) at Gok Machar. Sudan agreed for immediate use of land in Kadugli for the JBVMM HQ and Sector HQ. Concerns and Complaints Submitted to JPSM Co-Chairs

In accordance with the commitment to establish a Standing JPSM Secretariat as stipulated in the Agreement on Security Arrangements of 27 September 2012 and the Agreement on the Border Monitoring Support Mission of 30 July 2011, this Secretariat will receive concerns and complaints of the Parties and forward them to the Co-Chairs for allocation to the appropriate competent authority: the JBVMM; the Ad-Hoc committee; the Ad-Hoc committee of the JBVMM Sector HQ (for the 14 Mile Area); the JPSM Co-Chairs themselves; or a new ad-hoc or sub-committee should be created by the JPSM. The Ad-Hoc Committee and the Secretariat shall have a permanent office in Khartoum and Juba and ensure a permanent link between the two, including liaison visits.

Where there is a requirement for additional evidential detail and no mechanism for investigation already exists to perform the investigative functions proposed in column (h) the JPSM Secretariat will process the evidential detail for columns (c) to (f) in the matrix and report to the Co-Chairs for further action. In relation to current complaints and concerns a report will be made by the JPSM Secretariat to the Co-Chairs by 6 February 2013. Reports on all concerns and complaints contained in the matrix are to be made by the appropriate authority (as mentioned above) to future meetings of the JPSM as part of the formal agenda:
